

WCC General Meeting

October 14, 2015

Board Members Present:

Aaron Moore
Den Ramsey
Kelley Jordan
Sam Hahn
Javon Peck

- Janet and Corey from Nedco came to announce the Open House for the new Polk Street Apartments located at 89 N. Polk Street. Low income with priority given to young adults aging out of foster care. The Open House took place on October 15th with Kitty Piercy in attendance. There are 11 refurbished 1bdrm and two bedroom units. The Open House allowed you to meet some of the first residents and tour a unit. Pets allowed with deposit. There will be an onsite manager, who is a young man who aged out of foster care himself! This program is touted to be the first of its type in Oregon dedicated to young people who are aging out of foster care. Applications and information can be picked up at NEDCO or Looking Glass. Nedco received financial assistance and partnership from:
 - The City of Eugene
 - HUD
 - Looking Glass Youth and Family Services
 - The Collins Foundation
 - Banner Bank
 - Home Depot
 - Selco Community Credit Union
 - And many individuals in the community.
- Sam Hahn announced that he has been invited to represent the Whiteaker Neighborhood as a “Quiet Zone” committee member. So much more to come on that issue. Stay tuned!
- Trackside Lot: No new information.
- “MUPTTE”: No new information.
- At Large Board Member Elections held, Lyle Murphy and Emily Ridout, were voted in unanimously! Kelley Jordan was elected as acting Secretary for the WCC Board.
- Leases: No new information.
- The Council decided to renew its City Club Membership.

Community Member Email List (also in attendance)